Oil Firm Is Blamed by Nickel

NEW YORK (AP) — Interior Secretary Walter J. Hickel says an oil company was to blame for a pollution "disaster" posed by an offshore well gushing oil into the Gulf of Mexico.
Hickel, after an inspection flight over the area Thursday, said Chevron Oil Co. had removed an $800 safety device from the well which would have shut it off in an emergency.
"The storm choke, if operating, would have taken care of it, no doubt about that," Hickel said. "It should never have happened and it wouldn't have had the regulations put into effect last August been met."
Hickel skirted questions about whether action was planned against Chevron, saying only, "We will consider everything within the statutes."
Chevron officials declined comment.
The well is one of a group piped to an unmanned, automated control platform which stands in 40 feet of water some 30 miles off the Louisiana shore.
W. R. Bilton, Chevron safety engineer, said the well was gushing 600 to 1,000 barrels of oil a day. It spews up in a 100-foot high column and falls into the gulf, feeding a giant oil slick.
An explosion on the 40-by-100 foot platform Feb. 10 set the oil wells out of control. They shot up a flare of fire until Tuesday, when a 400-pound charge of dynamite was set off beside the platform to snuff out the flames and allow wild well specialists to move in an begin work on capping the wells.
The dangerous work could take a week or more, a company spokesman said.
Storm chokes are placed on offshore wells in case of damage aboard a platform—due to a hurricane, for instance and automatically shut down a well's flow if it gets out of control.
Chevron assembled 65 boats and barges in an attempt to contain the oil pollution, which threatens wild life refuges and oyster beds along the coast to the north and northeast of the oil platform.
"Compared to Santa Barbara this is a disaster," said Hickel as he walked along the sandy shore of Breton Island during a brief stop there by his helicopter. "There is much more oil involved, more pollution, a wider area and it will take much longer and be harder to clean up."
An offshore well at Santa Barbara, a channel off the California coast, leaked some 8,000 barrels of oil during drilling operations, creating extensive pollution and killing wildlife.
Chevron continued drilling on three relief wells which were angled in to intercept the wild wells at a point beneath the sea bottom. A spokesman said the well spewing most of the oil may be "killed" by Monday.
Twenty-one other oil platforms owned by Chevron are in the off-shore area, which is thickly dotted with oil and gas wells.

stroyed 10 buildings and more than 400 pounds of medicine. Ten rifles and a machine gun were captured, the sources said.
Allied spokesmen refused to confirm that the enemy position was a hospital, announcing in a communique that a battle at the site had resulted in 20 enemy killed, 10 captured and 10 houses destroyed.
No government casualties were reported in either account of the attack.
It was the second discovery in three weeks of a North Vietnamese hospital in the jungles of the northern 1st Corps area. Late last month South Vietnamese infantrymen uncovered an abandoned hospital they said was capable of treating up to 800 patients.
American forces searching through enemy base camp areas along the Cambodian border north of Saigon encountered sporadic resistance and withstood a heavy daylight shelling attack Thursday, military spokesmen reported.
But the U.S. Command said only that one of the four new casualties resulted in American casualties.
Three Americans were killed and one was wounded when a 1st Air Cavalry Division unit was hit by an enemy force nine miles northwest of Song Be.
U.S. units have been operating in the remote jungled area for more than a week and have run into North Vietnamese units of varying size almost daily.

Cong Chopper Is Destroyed In South Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — U.S. jet fighter-bombers destroyed a North Vietnamese helicopter on the ground in the Ho Chi Minh Trail region of southern Laos, informed sources said today.
The sources said it was the first confirmation of a North Vietnamese helicopter in Laos, although there have been unconfirmed reports of at least three being sighted in the Plain of Jars region of northeastern Laos.
The sources said the helicopter, a Russian Mi4, was parked on the ground under camouflage opposite the A Shau Valley region of South Vietnam.
The American planes attacked it three days ago, the sources said, and the destruction was confirmed by photographs taken by American reconnaissance planes.
Meanwhile informed sources said battlefield action had subsided to its lowest level in three months.
One source said that a buildup of as many as seven North Vietnamese battalions had been noted southwest of the Plain of Jars. Most of the movement is in the direction of Sam Thong, a major logistics base 15 miles southwest of the perimeter of the Plain of Jars, and Long Cheng, the headquarters of Gen. Van Pao, 80 miles north of Vientiane.

them photograph every incoming and outgoing check.
Instead, Rossides recommended requiring copies of just certain types of foreign transactions, most of them more than $1,000.
But as it turned out, he was recommending giving the secretary of the Treasury authority to require copying "any types of records or evidence which he determines are likely to have a high degree of usefulness in criminal, tax or regulatory investigations or proceedings."
In an interview Thursday Rossides promised Treasury would put regulations covering his March 2 recommendations on checks into effect within months of the passage of the bill, although regulations for currency transactions might take longer to complete.
He said, however, that the administration would not be willing to "accept" the same provisions written into a mandatory bill, because conditions might change too fast.

Brazil Agrees to Swap for Jap Official

By BRUCE HANDLER
Associated Press Writer
SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Brazilian authorities have agreed to exchange five political prisoners for the Japanese consul-general kidnapped Wednesday and are awaiting word about which five the terrorists want handed over.
A government communique Thursday afternoon said it would accede to the demand from the kidnapers, who identified themselves as members of the Popular Vanguard terror group, "so long as the kidnapers can prove that the consul is alive and in good health."
There are an estimated 2,000 political prisoners.
Soon after the government issued its communique, a second letter from the captive consul, Nobuo Okuchi, 56, repeated that he was well and expressed appreciation that the government had agreed to ransom him.
"I have full confidence in (the kidnapers') intention to release me," he wrote, "for they have nothing against me personally."
Reporters found the letter in a mailbox after a local newspaper received a tip.

Hijacked Plane Continues Flight to Cuba

MIAMI (AP) — A Colombian airliner hijacked to Cuba Wednesday on a flight from Bogota to Barranquilla left the Communist island late Thursday for Barranquilla, Havana Radio reported.
The Cuban broadcast, monitored in Miami, made no mention of the arrival of a Varig Brazilian Airliner hijacked Thursday on a flight from Santiago, Chile, to Europe with 42 persons aboard.
The Avianca Boeing 727 hijacked Wednesday carried 79 persons when it was commandeered near Barranquilla. Four men reported to be armed with bombs and guns threatened to blow up the Colombian plane if it did not take them to Cuba.

County Dist. to Enter Competition

The Hempstead County Soil and Water Conservation District will compete in the 24th annual Goodyear Soil Conservation Awards Program to select the nation's top 53 conservation districts, according to Slomon Goodman, Ozan, district chairman.
The district's activities and accomplishments will be measured against the performance of other districts in the state in determining the first and second place winners in the annual competition sponsored by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company. An independent judging committee of agricultural leaders will select the state winners for the calendar year 1970.
Grand award for the first place district will be expense-paid, vacation study trips to Arizona for the outstanding landowner-cooperator and one member of the district's governing board. They will be guests, along with representatives of the winning districts in other states, at the 10,000-acre Goodyear Farms and The Wigwam, resort hotel, in Litchfield Park, Ariz., in December, 1971.
The Hempstead County Soil and Water Conservation District has participated in the awards program twenty times and was the state's first place winner in 1964 and second place winner in 1963.
District supervisors are Slomon Goodman, Ozan, Monroe Samuel, DeAnn, Lacie Rowe, Hope, Richard Arnold, Hope.
Goodlett said the district's outstanding cooperator for 1970 will be selected from the more than 1800 land owners enrolled in the district program. Nationally, more than 2,000,000 individuals and companies have signed cooperative agreements with the 3,000 local soil and water conservation districts.

Man Aboard Plane Shoots Self to Death

DENVER (AP) — A man shot and killed himself Thursday in a jetliner flying high over western Nebraska. A bullet, possibly the same one the suicide fired into the plane, struck and wounded a man across the aisle.
The suicide victim was identified only as J. Thomas, 35, a Negro, whose United Airlines flight booking was from San Jose, Calif., the plane's takeoff point, to New Haven, Conn.
The wounded man was J. Marvin Sager, 42, of Pleasanton, Calif., who was taken to a hospital after the Chicago-bound 727 jet turned back and landed in Denver. The bullet struck him in the chin and went out through one cheek. His condition was described as fair.
FBI agents who entered the case did not identify the caliber of bullet, but said the weapon was a pistol. Airline officials said there was no apparent damage to the plane.
Robert Chase of Chicago, a passenger, said he was sitting next to Sager.
"One man on the far side of the cabin pitched forward and the man next to me—I didn't realize he'd been shot," Chase said.
Richard Schonert, 41, a high school science teacher at San Jose, said he didn't see the shooting but heard it.
"I heard what sounded like two explosions," he said. "One may have been a gunshot. Later the pilot said the bullet had struck the plane's bulkhead."
The pilot, 42-year-old Tom Bredis of San Francisco, turned the airliner around and notified the air traffic control center at Longmont, Colo., that he was making a nonscheduled stop in Denver.
"All I can say is that there was a shooting incident about 100 miles east of Scottsbluff, Neb., and that Denver was the closest place to land. We have been interrogated by the FBI. That's all I care to say," Bredis told newsmen.

Illinois 2,017, Michigan 1,864, Florida 1,343, North Carolina 1,089, New Jersey 1,080, Georgia 1,083, and Indiana 1,064.
By contrast, four states—among the nation's most thinly populated—sustained a combined 10 losses below the 100 mark. They are Delaware 85, Wyoming 80, Vermont 68, and Alaska, the lowest of the states with 30.

Dozen States Have Most War Deaths

WASHINGTON (AP) — A dozen states have suffered more than half the country's combat deaths in the Vietnam war.
This is shown in a Pentagon-prepared state-by-state breakdown of 40,028 losses resulting from action by enemy forces up to Jan. 1. Another 800-plus men have been killed since but the state proportions are believed about the same.
The dozen states are among the nation's most populous 15 states, according to Commerce Department population figures. The states whose killed-in-action deaths totaled 23,042 as of Jan. 1 are led by California, which by itself accounts for nearly 10 per cent of all combat losses.
The totals are California 3,910; New York 2,946; Texas 2,315; Pennsylvania 2,191; Ohio 2,140;

Sam Fry and Ted Lightner of New York belong to that select group of bridge players who have won both the Vanderbilt and Spingold cups. Today's hand finds them pitted against one another in a rubber bridge game at New York's Regency-Whist Club.

West opened the nine of spades against Fry's three no-trump. Lightner played the deuce and Sam won with the king.

His next play was the jack of hearts toward dummy's six. Ted had no problem about that trick. He played his three of hearts with no strain at all. Sam continued with the eight of hearts. He knew that Ted was fully capable of letting that jack hold, but he also knew that Ted did not have to hold the heart king, so Sam played dummy's nine.

Ted was in with the king and played the queen of diamonds. At this point, Sam studied his play for some time and made the winning decision. He let Lightner hold that trick.

Lightner continued with the jack of diamonds. Sam cashed the ace and king, discarding a spade from dummy. Then he led his jack of spades.

Ted couldn't afford to win that trick, since that would make the queen of spades an entry for dummy's hearts, so he ducked.

A third spade produced the queen from dummy and Ted had to win. He cashed his last spade but was now down to his four clubs and had to lead from the queen, so the jack of clubs finally became an entry to dummy. Ted had taken two spades, a heart and a diamond but that wasn't enough.

HELEN HELP US!

By Helen Bittel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT! This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! This newspaper.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF "RABBIT TEST"

Dear Helen: I'm not a teenager nor do I have a family or marriage problem. What I'm after is a different kind of "rabbit test." Like how can I keep the critters out of my garden? Here in Florida where we have retired, people said we could have a garden the year around. I believed them. I bought a lot next to our house, cleared it, which meant acquiring a lot of fancy garden tools. After spending around $1800 for the project, I find the only things I can grow are onions and peppers, which rabbits evidently do not relish.

Can anyone tell me how to keep those cotton pickin' varmints out of my garden?—MR. P.

Dear Mr. P: I am not a rabbit catcher by trade, but I read in L.M. Boyd's syndicated "Checking Up" column that those voracious varmints are crazy for rum. In Australia, traps are baited with the liquor and rabbits trample each other to get inside. But then there's this next problem: What does one do with a bunch of inebriated bunnies?

Which reminds me of a fine hair for slugs and snails: Set out pie-tins of beer and they'll eagerly climb overboard, drink themselves into a stupor, then drown happily. Much more efficient and less messy than salting, stomping or poisoning them to death.

(But I STILL say there are better uses for rum and beer!)

Dear Helen: Please tell me how to let a lady know that pushing and planning for a wedding shower for her SON is not exactly kosher. She wants us church members to give it. We might possibly plan a shower for a girl, if she were a member of our church, but this girl is of a different faith—and besides, I hear by the grapevine that doesn't even plan to marry the boy.

Is it ever correct to give a shower for a man?—FAN

Dear Fan: I've never heard

Don't Ask Me Up My Answers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—When you ask me? As a columnist and a newspaper editor, I don't want to be asked for my answers.

You will be speaking to Helen Grimes, only male operator currently employed by the Pacific Telephone Co.

Grimes, 25, and married, has been on the job two weeks at the Western Street central office, along with 35 girls.

He likes it, and the other operators like having him around, but he says some callers speak on a different wavelength. Some ask, "Is there a drink or something?"

Grimes said he is to pioneer or crusader. He needs a job, saw an advertisement for operators and applied.

THE REV. CHARLES S. SPIVEY
A New York black churchman, proposed a requirement for interracial rotation of bishops in a move Thursday night at the week-long Consultation on Church Union. Action on the matter was deferred.
Only hours before, church representatives unanimously approved a stipulation limiting the national presiding bishop to eight years in office, and requiring that the post be filled alternately by bishops of different racial backgrounds.

Pastor Collects Garbage to Help Church
PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP) - The Rev. Daniel Gross, 33, a Pentecostal preacher, is picking up garbage in Northeast Arkansas and Southeast Missouri in an attempt to earn enough money to establish a church-school orphanage complex.
The Rev. Mr. Gross says a majority of his clients are home owners who live along arterial highways. He said he is negotiating with officials in Black Oak, Corning, Leachville, McDouglas and Pollard for the right to service those cities. On March 1 he began picking up garbage on a contractual basis on Peach Orchard.
He says he is expecting an answer from the Paragould City Council later this month on his offer to supplant the city's operated sanitation service.

Urges United Action in Church Merger
By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
ST. LOUIS (AP) - A move was pressed today to augment Negro leadership in a projected new united church embracing several wings of Protestantism, both black and white.
The Rev. Charles S. Spivey, a New York black churchman, proposed a requirement for interracial rotation of bishops in a move Thursday night at the week-long Consultation on Church Union. Action on the matter was deferred.
Only hours before, church representatives unanimously approved a stipulation limiting the national presiding bishop to eight years in office, and requiring that the post be filled alternately by bishops of different racial backgrounds.

THE SHEPHERD'S STAFF

...and you, too, will need it when you pass through the valley of the shadow. We grope blindly through this world as we trample law and order, and the blessings of an Almighty God. We black-out God and every opportunity to do good. The family, the church, the state will suffer for our sins of omission...our failure to possess the earth. Our goal is not the mark of the high calling which is in Christ Jesus. We know He is the light of the world but we don't care to possess it. It is dark about us and apparently we are glad of it. It is dark about us because we choose darkness rather than light. Regular attendance at church could make the dark situation light again.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

On Dec. 16, 1944, the German army made a major counteroffensive against American forces in what is known as the Battle of the Bulge. An important point of U.S. resistance was at Bastogne. Belgium. The World Almanac says that when the besieged U.S. force at Bastogne was asked to surrender, their commander, Brig. Gen. Anthony McAuliffe, gave his famous reply, "Nuts!"

New York's State University is located at Albany, the state capital.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for every service and kindness rendered by our many friends and neighbors during the loss of our loved one.

Quakers in Upset of Top Ranked Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Quakers of Guilford, N.C., were the giant-killers in the NAIA basketball tournament.

The Guilford Quakers knocked out the nation's top-ranked small college team, Stephen F. Austin, 100-94 in the quarter-finals Thursday night, ending a two-season 33-game winning streak for the Texans.

Guilford will play Kentucky State at 8:45 p.m. CST tonight in the semifinals after Eastern New Mexico tangles with Central Washington at 7 p.m.

Eastern New Mexico pulled its best biggest surprise by upsetting second-seeded Maryland State 76-74 in overtime.

Greg Hyder, 6-foot-6 Eastern New Mexico senior, suffered two painful back injuries, but came back to battle. He scored 22 points, grabbed 16 rebounds, and in the overtime scored eight of his team's 11 points.

In other quarter-final games, Central Washington edged Jackson, Miss., State 72-70, and Kentucky State whipped Central State of Ohio 66-56.

Guilford did the job on SFA by outbounding the bigger Lumberjacks 55-30 with terrific hustle. The Quakers limited SFA to a single shot, usually, while making three tip-in baskets and eight on follow shots for themselves.

Guilford's zone defense kept the ball away from SFA's big inside men. David Smith scored 36 points, M.L. Carr 27, and Jerry Crocker 25 for the Quakers.

Maryland State's coach, Joe Robinson, said "We lost the game at the free throw line (hitting only 18 of 34). I'm not crying. We just blew it. But I still say we're the best ball club."

AUSTIN (AP)—Coach Darrell Royal has one black on his Texas Longhorn varsity and one lined up for the freshman team next fall. He says he wants more.

"We went out of our way" trying to recruit black football players this year, Royal said Thursday in an article in the Daily Texan, the student newspaper.

The article centered on Julius Whittier, who, if he gets into a game this fall, will be the first Negro to play on the Texas varsity.

Whittier is an outstanding prospect. He is 6-10, weighs 205 and is so quick he often appeared to be quick—but was not—off-sides in freshmen games last year.

Texas tried to recruit 14 blacks this year. It got only one. Bill Lyons, a black student who follows the UT athletic program closely, says: "Most blacks around the state feel that Texas is the epitome of racism."

"I don't know what it will take to improve the recruiting situation," Royal said. "We just treat our recruits the same. We treat them the same on the football field. We have given no special treatment to Julius. I'm sure he doesn't expect any. He gets along well with the coaches and other players. He is friendly and easy going."

"The coaches have treated me all right," Whittier said. "(Assistant coach Bill) Ellington is really a fine human being. The problems I've had have been with some of the players. Texas seems to recruit a lot of boys from small towns, and most of them have small minds like their fathers."

"I've gotten the message from them. It's subtle, but to them I'm definitely an outsider. They ask me to play basketball or football with them, but they never ask me to go have a beer with them, or anything like that—that I would want to anyway."

Jimmy Dreyer, freshman defensive end from Brenham, disagrees. "Julius is just another of the boys," he said. "We listen to records and watch TV. We have asked Julius to go places with us before. He said no. Once in awhile, we'll go and drink a few beers. Julius doesn't drink."

Scott Palmer, junior tackle, said: "I can understand his problem. If I was the only white player in an all-black school, I would probably feel the same way. It takes a lot of guts on Julius' part to do what he is doing. He could have gone to some other school."

Texas tried to recruit 14 blacks this year. A campus group called the student committee to facilitate the recruiting of minority athletes talked with the coaches, and the coaches asked the committee to help them. But Louie Bennett of Bouham was the only black to sign on with Texas.

A-State Starts Spring Grid Practice

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Spring football practice begins Saturday at Arkansas State University, defending champion of the Southland Conference.

Coach Bennie Ellender said the practice sessions would continue until the March 27 spring vacation break and then resume April 7. He said the Indians would be involved in contact work each day.

"We have to replace some key people from last year," Ellender said, "and the only way to find out who wants to play is put them to hitting."

"Jim is the star of the ball club," said Morgan, "and of all the guys, he's the one we should keep happy. The other teams don't make the Aarons and the Mayeses unhappy. Right now, Jim is very unhappy and I don't blame him."

Meanwhile, exhibition action continued and the key men in one winter trade made the deal look good from both ends.

Alex Johnson, traded by Cincinnati to California for three pitchers including Jim McGlothlin, ripped three singles, drove in three runs and scored two in the Angels' 7-6 victory over Seattle. McGlothlin pitched four scoreless innings and the Reds shut out Kansas City 3-0 with four blanks by Tony Cline and one by Al Jackson completing the job.

Elsewhere, rookie Bill Buckner cracked four hits and drove in four runs while Andy Kosco added a three-run homer helping Los Angeles beat Houston 10-6. Jim Lomborg worked four scoreless innings and Billy Conigliaro tagged Tom Seaver for a home run as Boston topped the New York Mets 2-0.

Rookie Wayne Anderson and veteran Rick Monday homered on consecutive pitches and Oakland walloped San Francisco 12-1. Cleveland pushed across a run in the 11th inning to top the Chicago Cubs 4-3. St. Louis shut out Detroit 5-0 with Nelson

Busch Drops Bomb on His Players

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Bombastic August Busch dropped a low yield explosive on baseball's generation gap and the shock waves reached all the way to Houston where Jimmy Wynn is searching the classified ads, "looking for a job."

Busch, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, gave holdout Steve Carlton a verbal dressing down Thursday, saying, "I don't care if he ever pitches another ball for us again."

A similar public explosion a day earlier had brought slugger Rich Allen into line in a hurry but Carlton was standing fast on his demand for $40,000—about $8,000 more than Busch was willing to pay the pitcher.

"I can't understand with the pension they (the players) have and how fair we are, how they can consistently call all of us, the owners, a bunch of tight-wads and not worth a damn," said Busch.

The Cardinals sent Carlton a letter of renewal, stating that the pitcher's contract had been renewed at the estimated 25 per cent increase and that he would be permitted to play without signing if he wants to.

If Carlton, who is working but remains unsigned, agrees to play without a contract, he will lose certain pension and insurance benefits. Busch is standing firmly on his 25 per cent raise and refuses to move.

"My hope is that some other owners will have the guts to do what I'm doing to help reverse this thing and get people back to normalcy."

Instead of normalcy, Wynn was on his way back to Houston after another fruitless salary conference with H. B. "Spec" Richardson, general manager of the Astros.

The slugging outfielder is asking for $60,000 and Richardson, who says he won't "negotiate ball player contracts in the newspaper," is holding the line at something over $50,000.

Wynn got support from second baseman Joe Morgan, his roommate, who said he believes the Astros could win the pennant with Jim, but not without him.

"Jim is the star of the ball club," said Morgan, "and of all the guys, he's the one we should keep happy. The other teams don't make the Aarons and the Mayeses unhappy. Right now, Jim is very unhappy and I don't blame him."

Senate Turns to Extending Voting Rights

Interest in Whom?
The Federal Reserve Board has pulled another biter in permitting banks to increase rates paid on deposits. It was justified with the fatuous statement that it would help the real estate fund market.

Banks are not major factors in housing—except in loaning temporary construction money to builders. It will only give them more money to loan at increasing interest rates.

It was obvious that the savings and loans must be permitted to follow suit. They are a prime source of mortgage money. If they must pay more interest to their savers there is resultant upward pressure on mortgage interest rates.

The year stretching ahead of us is already marked by built-in wage increases in a number of trade unions and there's a federal employee pay boost in the offing.

All of this simply means more dollars going out to buy things at ever-increasing prices. If this is an anti-inflation remedy, it's a hell of a way to run a railroad.—Tulsa (Okla.) Tribune

No Smoking

In a variety of ways, social pressure to quit smoking cigarettes is building up.

Item: Word is out that TWA will henceforth have a smokers-only section and it follows, a no-smoking section—on its giant Boeing 747s.

Item: The Executive Board of the World Health Organization adopted a resolution calling on those who attend its meeting not to smoke. Said the WHO, "no organization devoted to the promotion of health can be neutral" on the cigarette question.

If things keep on, a fellow'll soon have to sneak out behind the barn.—Texarkana (Tex.) Gazette.

Most sensible "New Decade" resolution we've heard: Enjoy yourself. These are the good old days you'll miss in 1980.—Waynesboro (Va.) News-Virginian

New Selective Service Head Is Nominated

WASHINGTON (AP) — A gangling, affable one-time university president who says he hopes he can serve the young people of America has been chosen by President Nixon to head the Selective Service System.

Forty-five-year-old Curtis W. Tarr, who for the past nine months has served as assistant secretary of the Air Force for manpower and reserve affairs, was named Thursday to succeed Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, who retired as draft chief Feb. 6.

The formal nomination was sent to the Senate Thursday where Tarr must be confirmed for the post he says he was not anxious to accept.

Tarr said he was first approached about the job by the White House last December but he indicated then he wanted to remain in his Pentagon post. Asked if he still would prefer to remain at the Pentagon, Tarr acknowledged that "sentimentally" he would.

The six-foot-six, smiling nominee who, for six years before joining the Nixon administration was president of Lawrence University in Appleton, Wis., emphasized at a press conference his close touch with American youth.

West Memphis Man Killed

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP) — Harry F. Smith, 56, of West Memphis, was killed Thursday night in a two-car crash on U.S. 70 about 1.7 miles west of West Memphis.

State Police said the vehicle Smith was driving was struck in the right side by a car driven by Catherine Byford, 33, of Proctor. Officers said Smith apparently was attempting to make a U-turn on the highway when the accident occurred. Officers said Miss Byford was hospitalized at West Memphis.

Cambodian Mobs Again Demonstrate Against Raids by Viet Cong

By PETER O'LOUGHLIN
Associated Press Writer
BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Mobs of Cambodians demonstrated today for the third day against North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops using their country and raided the Vietnamese quarter of Phnom Penh, the capital informed sources in Bangkok said.

The crowds attacked houses and stores owned by Vietnamese and looted Roman Catholic churches. No deaths were reported, but at least four Vietnamese were reported hospitalized.

Cambodia's ruler, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, said in Paris that the demonstrations were the work of right-wingers trying to force his nation into "the American camp." But the Cambodian cabinet said the demonstrators were "worthy of praise," and the National Assembly made known that it "strongly supports" the demonstrators.

Prince Sihanouk, who has been on his annual health visit to France, said he would leave today for Phnom Penh but would stop on the way in Moscow and Peking, apparently to ask the Soviets and the Chinese to smooth over things between him and Hanoi.

The cabinet statement, broadcast by Radio Phnom Penh, said "several hundred thousand" residents of Phnom Penh had demonstrated to support the people of Svay Rieng Province, which the Viet Cong have infiltrated heavily.

The National Assembly issued its statement after a 2½-hour emergency meeting, held

McClellan Denies Talk on Racing

WASHINGTON (AP) — A spokesman in the office of Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Thursday that the senator had not discussed Southland Racing Corp. with Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Rockefeller said at a news conference Tuesday that he had discussed the West Memphis firm with McClellan. The Governor said he had not pushed an investigation of New York interests in the dog race track at West Memphis after his conversation with McClellan, who is chairman of the Senate Race-Tracks Committee.

An investigation of the possible underworld connections of High Park Inc. of Buffalo, N. Y., is to begin later this month. High Park holds 46.6 per cent of the Southland stock.

Refrigerator Is Land of Plenty, a Cool Eden to the Family Cat

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Every creature probably has its own idea of heaven.

Paradise to our family cat, Lady Dottie, I am convinced, lies in our refrigerator. That is what she is forever trying to poke her nose into.

To her, the refrigerator is a Land of Plenty, a cool Eden stocked with endless goodies. But no matter what I take out of it to feed her, she gives me a melancholy look that says: "If you'd just let me get in there myself, I'm sure I could find something better."

Sometimes when I come home from work I find Lady Dottie bunched comfortably on her paws on the kitchen floor staring worshipfully up at the refrigerator as if it were her idol. Who can say that it is not?

Lady Dottie is now 13. If you multiply that by seven, the common method of finding the human equivalent of an animal's age, she is 91.

Everything that comes into or goes out of our apartment, we can't even open a package, even if it is addressed to us, not her, without Lady Dottie trying to climb into it first. She simply assumes it must be for her.

It is a mark of wisdom in a human being to achieve a stoic serenity in the darkening twilight of age. In that respect Lady Dottie is a wise cat indeed.

Sometimes as I watch her stare calmly from her window perch at the world outside, I feel that she has been greatly cheated in life by having missed many of the wild pleasures known to roaming cats.

But if she has been robbed of much of her feline brightness, Lady Dottie shows no resentment. She has not been made neurotic by these denials of her freedom.

Born into a world she never made, she has made a world of her own, turned an 8th floor apartment into her personal empire.

Wednesday while demonstrators were protesting on the steps of the building.

"It is not true that the Viet Cong troops have taken refuge in our territory to avoid American pursuit," said Assemblyman Kaom Reth. "They have come to use our territory as their own."

Deputy Premier Sirik Matak told a news conference that he has proposed adding 10,000 more men to Cambodia's armed forces, which now total 49,000 men.

Prince Sirik said the government also had suspended a commercial agreement, providing for the sale of rice to the Viet Cong, until the latter indicates it will withdraw its troops. He said the government at the same time expressed its regrets to the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong for the initial demonstrations Wednesday in which both their embassies were attacked, but he declared that both must respect Cambodia's territorial sovereignty.

Cambodia is determined to remain neutral, he asserted, but at the same time it is resolved to defend itself against current threats.

Prediction Is Frost for Arkansas

Cold weather is again firmly entrenched in Arkansas as a very frigid high pressure ridge moves across the state from the west.

The U.S. Weather Bureau is predicting frost tonight and urges that soft wooded plants and all perishable flowers be protected from the cold.

No precipitation is expected until Monday or Tuesday when a high pressure center now located in North Central Texas drifts southeast.

Highs Thursday ranged from 31 at Harrison to 41 at Texarkana.

Lows Thursday night were 14 at Fayetteville; 20 at Harrison; 31 at Jonesboro; 31 at Pine Bluff; 28 at El Dorado; 32 at Memphis; 32 at Little Rock; 27 at Fort Smith and 31 at Texarkana.

Precipitation totals recorded during the past 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. today included a trace of rain at Little Rock and Pine Bluff; .03 of an inch at Fayetteville with an inch of snow; .03 at Harrison; .04 at Jonesboro; .02 at El Dorado; .04 at Memphis; and .08 at Texarkana.

Arkansas River Channel Has a Snag

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Col. Vernon W. Pinkley, the Tulsa District Army engineer, said Thursday that the completion of the Arkansas River navigation channel to Tulsa, Okla., may be delayed beyond the December 1970 target date.

Pinkley says three critical problems must be solved before the channel can be completed: — Construction of a railroad bridge on the Verdigris River east of Okay, Okla., to replace two railroad bridges.

— Construction of the powerhouse at Webers Falls Lock and Dam on the Arkansas River in Oklahoma.

— Relocation of bridges on the Sans Bois Creek arm of the reservoir that will be formed by the Robert S. Kerr Lock and Dam.

Missing Youth Found Safe

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Dennis Ford, 13, of near Russellville was tired and near a search party found him shortly before 7 a.m. today, but he was reported in good condition.

Ford, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ford, disappeared at about 4 p.m. Thursday in a wooded area about five miles north of Russellville.

Oil Spills Hasten Bill on Pollution

WASHINGTON (AP) — A joint congressional committee has approved a water pollution bill that requires private firms to pay for cleaning up their own oil spills whether caused by negligence or an honest mistake.

The House-Senate panel's action Thursday ended a five-month-old deadlock over differing versions of the bill. It now must be approved by both bodies.

The measure would require firms to pay damages of $100 per gross ton of oil or $14 million, whichever is less, in case of an accidental spill or leak for which the company is not held negligent.

However, unlimited liability was set for cleanup costs in cases where willful negligence or misconduct can be proved.

The bill was prompted by damaging oil spills such as the one last year off the coast at Santa Barbara, Calif. The bill also creates an Office of Environmental Quality to act as staff for President Nixon's new Environmental Council.

To help the government react immediately and cleanup its coastal waters after a spill, the conference established a $35-million revolving fund and authorized contingency planning services and expanded research on new clean up methods.

Venue Change Taken Under Advisement

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — A motion seeking a change of venue in the trial of five men charged in the January kidnapping of a Texarkana girl was taken under advisement Thursday by U.S. District Judge Paul X. Williams.

Williams said he would rule on the motion prior to the March 23 trial of Paul L. Bryant, 21, Joe W. Feggett, 23, and Booker T. Burkhalter, 24, all of Dallas, Tex.; Johnny Tasty, 21 of Lafayette County, Ark.; and Hugh M. Smith, 20, of Texarkana, Tex.

The five are charged in connection with the abduction of Karen Vickers, 15. Miss Vickers was taken from her home and held for more than 24 hours before being released unharmed. A demand for a $40,000 ransom was never met.

Williams said, in considering the venue motion, that he could "find no fault so far with press coverage." He said his duty was to balance the right of the free press with the right of the defendants to a fair trial.

Defense attorneys asked the trial be moved to El Paso, Tex. Williams also rejected motions seeking a continuance in the trial and separate trials for the five defendants.

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Government mercenaries led by U.S. Green Berets attacked a Viet Cong jungle hospital, killed 20 guards or staff members and captured 10 patients, reliable sources said today.

The attack was made six miles northwest of the Special Forces camp at Tien Phuoc, 40 miles south of Da Nang, apparently after receiving intelligence reports of the hospital's location.

The troops reportedly destroyed the hospital.

New Approach to Foreign Bank Records

By JOHN M. PEARCE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration, invoking an unnotified loophole it gave itself two weeks ago, has asked Congress to take a new approach to finding illegal money in foreign bank accounts.

It wants to give the Treasury secretary absolute power to decide what bank records are kept.

Eugene T. Rossides, an assistant Treasury secretary, submitted the administration's bill without notice Thursday to the House Banking Committee. The panel has been considering another bill submitted by Chairman Wright Patman, D-Tex., and opposed by the administration after some initial stumbling.

Patman said the administration bill was an effort by Rossides to "gut the objectives of the bill before, accommodate all the desires of the financial community and protect the ego" of Rossides and the administration. He set another meeting for next Tuesday.

The measure, submitted after Treasury and committee staffs could not agree on ways to amend Patman's bill, follows the outline Rossides presented in testimony March 2, but not the way it was interpreted then. Despite a brief sentence saying the administration wanted "a statutory framework providing maximum flexibility to the secretary of the Treasury or his delegate to issue regulations implementing the legislation," Patman and everyone else apparently thought he wanted several specific record-keeping requirements included.

Treasury's objection has been that Patman's bill—endorsed by 18 of the committee's 33 members—would be too hard on banks because it would make

New Wave of Bomb Scares in Big Cities

By JOE MCNEEL
Associated Press Writer
Explosions occurred in Pittsburgh, Pa., and Washington, D.C., seven random bombs went off in a jammed New York high school and mysterious fires broke out in two Appleton, Wis. schools today and a wave of telephoned bomb threats continued.

Thousands of workers and students were evacuated as the scares occurred in public buildings, offices of major corporations, high schools and colleges but in most cases searches turned up no bombs.

New York City alone reported 336 bomb scares between midnight Wednesday and 11 a.m. today—a rate of almost 10 threats an hour.

Among the buildings searched for bombs were a Cincinnati telephone office; General Electric Co.'s headquarters in New York and a GE plant in Newark, N.J.; Newark's state office building; Essex County (N.J.) College; and the federal courthouse in Brooklyn.

At New York's George Washington High School about 4,000 pupils were in classes when given gasoline bombs of the "Molotov cocktail" variety exploded throughout the school. No one was hurt and teachers quickly evacuated their classes. Damage was negligible.

Severe damage was caused Thursday by the bombings of the midtown Manhattan offices of Mobile Oil Corp., International Business Machines Corp., and General Telephone & Electronics Corp. No one was hurt.

Soon after the bombings, a letter was received by United Press International from a group calling itself "Revolutionary Workers' Solidarity" and threatening "more bombs" unless the group against corporation profiteering from the Vietnam war and "American imperialism in all of the world."

New York police said they received 205 bomb threats Thursday after the explosions. An estimated 15,000 persons were affected by evacuations of at least 15 buildings during bomb searches. The United Nations building was searched without an evacuation.

Mayor John V. Lindsay called the bombings "Morally reprehensible, but self-defeating for those who presumably seek change through acts of terrorism." The City Council president, Sanford D. Garelik, a former chief inspector of police, called the city a battleground of "armed urban guerrillas."

In disruptions caused by bomb scares in other cities, all 2,700 workers at National Cash Register Co.'s main plant in Dayton, Ohio, were sent home while police searched for a reported bomb. An anonymous caller said a bomb had been placed at the plant to protest the Vietnam war.

The San Francisco City Hall was searched by police after an anonymous threat to a switchboard operator. No evacuation was made.

In Washington, tight security measures were enforced at the Justice Department after a telephone bomb threat. No bomb was found.

In Albany, N.Y., the U.S. Naval Reserve Training Center was put on alert after naval intelligence reported the center had been threatened with a fire bomb attack.
